Implementing a Culturally Responsive Multi-Level System of Support: Reviewing Your Selected and Intensive Levels of Support

Analyze how your system provides for student needs that extend above and below the reach of the universal level of support.

Participant Outcomes

This session will build the capacity of school or district teams to establish/strengthen their selected and intensive levels of support for mathematics or reading. Teams will leave this one-day session with a facilitated process to use back in their school/district, and a toolkit of resources to guide future work.

Activities

- Identify key characteristics of effective, culturally responsive selected and intensive levels of support
- Use a brief needs assessment to identify an area of growth
- Identify current status, desired future and priorities
- Use resources to create a shared vocabulary and an action plan
- Learn a process to continue this work independently

Intended Audience

District or school level Rtl leadership teams, including administrators, instructional staff, pupil services, and parents. Administrator attendance is critical for support and sustainability.

Recommended Prerequisites

Teams that have completed the following will benefit most from this session:

1. A screening process in place for at least a year
2. Completion of the School-wide implementation Review (SIR) within the year
3. Attendance at both the Wisconsin Rtl Center Framework Training and the Screening and Progress Monitoring sessions

Presenters: Wisconsin Rtl Center Technical Assistance Coordinators

CANCELLATION POLICY: Any registration cancellation must be received 7 days prior to the training date for a refund to be issued. Persons registering and not in attendance on the day of the session will be charged the full registration fee. The Wisconsin Rtl Centers reserves the right to cancel any session due to insufficient enrollment. Participants will be notified by email or phone if a cancellation occurs.
