Collaborative Sharing: The Challenge of Multilingual Classrooms

How can we help our language students reach their full potential? What modifications can classroom teachers make? What higher-order thinking skills, content strategies, and participation techniques have you used? Share what works or your ah ha moment. Some ideas to get you started—

- How do you develop academic language,
- From the Virginia Rojas Workshop, vocabulary strategy -Vocab Alert.
- Basic, reading, writing, speaking, and life skills at the Web Site USA Learns. English or Spanish. <http://www.usa.learns.com>
- Parade of Programs by WI ECB. Into the Book, professional development and K-3 series.

ELL NETWORK AND LEARNING COMMUNITY

The series is designed for SCHOOL DISTRICTS of ALL SIZES with district teams of individuals who coordinate, administer or serve as a resource or classroom teacher for English Language Learners. The purpose of the meeting is to facilitate discussion about a topic related to the education of English Language Learners. This allows participants to network, ask questions, and construct new meanings by interacting with others in the field.

COSTS

- CESA 2 ELL Title III Consortium Members price is included as a part of the Title III consortium funds.
- All other participants are a total of $800 for the 4 remaining meetings or $200 per meeting for teams.
