Teacher Effectiveness & Student Engagement

February 24, 2016 – 9:00 a.m. to Noon

Presenters: Patrick Coleman, Regional Education Director, MasteryConnect
Ellie Olson, Effectiveness Project[®] Coordinator

Session 1:

Title: Moving from Involvement to Engagement

Description: Systemic evaluation systems have the possibility to move your staff from involvement (which implies doing to) to engagement (which implies doing with) for educators, as well as students. Effectiveness requires using data to guide your district's mission and meet the individual needs of all students.

Presenter: Ellen Olson

Session 2:

Title: The Data Gap: Transitioning to Actionable Data Practices

Description: This session emphasizes transitioning your school or district to a more data informed climate. Learn how to help teachers shape their instructional practice around "actionable data", leveraging classroom level/real time data to create better learning experiences for kids.

Presenter: Patrick Coleman

Session 3:

Title: Making the Connection

Description: See how CESA 6's Effectiveness Project[®] and MasteryConnect can help ensure our teachers have the resources necessary to move from involvement to engagement and shape their instructional practices around "actionable data" to maximize teacher and student outcomes.

Presenters: Ellen Olson and Patrick Coleman

Session 4:

Title: Panel Discussion and Q&A Opportunity

Description: Interactive panel discussion where the audience will provide the topics of discussion based on level of interest.

Presenters: Ellen Olson and Patrick Coleman
