

The Next Step in Guided Reading

Presenter: Jan Richardson

When: Wednesday, October 12, 2011 ; 8:30 am – 3:00 pm (lunch included)

Location: LaSure's Banquet Hall, Oshkosh

About the Presenter:

Jan Richardson, Ph.D., is an educational consultant who travels throughout the United States training teachers and providing classroom demonstrations on guided reading. A former classroom teacher (she has taught in every grade K-12), reading specialist, Reading Recovery® teacher leader, and staff developer, Jan is well-known for her practical, engaging presentations. Her latest book is The Next in Guided Reading: Focused Assessments and Targeted Lessons for Helping Every Student Become a Better Reader. Jan is passionate about motivating and accelerating all readers from emergent to fluent.

Objectives (Teachers will):

- gain an understanding of guided reading and how it allows them to diversity their reading instruction;
- learn the transitional and fluent guided reading lesson framework;
- learn techniques for teaching decoding, vocabulary, fluency and comprehension strategies during small group lessons.

Learning Outcomes (As a result taking part in this activity, participants will know how to):

- analyze assessments to identify a focus strategy;
- select appropriate books for guided reading;
- prompt students to use efficient decoding strategies;
- teach students to use vocabulary strategies;
- teach design appropriate guided word study for teaching phonics skills;
- use assessments to group students for guided reading;
- prompt students to monitor for meaning;
- prompt students for fluency;
- know how to teach students to use a variety of comprehension strategies;
- use guided writing to extend comprehension and improve writing skills;
