The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction encourages teachers to use a continuous teaching cycle of assessment, planning and implementation. Join us to explore authentic assessment practices that capture what children truly know and can do. We will also explore how assessment information can help teachers of young children become more intentional in guiding young children's development.

Training Objectives:

- Differentiate between 5 different purposes of assessment in early childhood settings
- Assess district/county ongoing assessment practices to identify strengths and potential areas of growth
- Critique criterion-referenced assessment tools for use in functional assessment
- Practice using data from assessment tools to plan instruction (especially small group and individualized instruction)
- Share successful strategies for creating and sustaining an ongoing assessment system
- Practice using assessment information to prepare for Child Outcome Rating

Registration Fee: $35.00

Includes light breakfast, lunch and training materials.
