Add+Vantage Math Recovery

Informed Assessment for Math Teaching

July 25-28, 2016 – 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Presenter: Lori Loehr
Math Center Coordinator

Description

Add+VantageMath Recovery™ (AVMR) Course 1 is a unique approach to professional development, assessment and teaching in mathematics. The AVMR program is designed to provide teachers with efficient and effective assessment tools to recognize their students' current understanding of number concepts and to support data-driven instruction.

Objectives

- Learn to use effective assessments that reveal students' true conceptual understanding and level of proficiency with computation and number sense.
- Practice informed assessment techniques and develop processes for incorporating these practices into your instruction.
- Apply teaching strategies to guide development of mathematical reasoning.
- Utilize current resources to address learning needs of students.

Who Should Attend?

- Elementary Administrators, K-5 Teachers, Title I / Special Education Teachers

Graduate Credits

Two graduate credits will be offered through the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. The cost for two graduate credits is $400.
