Restorative Practices in the School Setting

Online Graduate Course via Moodle 24/7

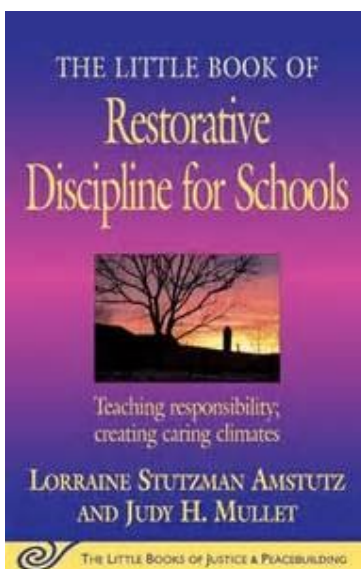

Monday, June 13, 2016 - Friday, August 5, 2016

Presenters:

Jackie Schoening, MSSW, CISW, SSW Safe and Healthy Schools Program Coordinator
Vicki Bayer, MeD, Director of Special Education and Pupil Services, Green Bay Area Public Schools

Description

This online book study will provide school personnel with practical strategies to apply restorative practices to their educational practice. This course will introduce to school personnel the concepts of restorative justice and restorative discipline; offer new tools that can reduce the need for school exclusion; and offer ways to enhance the school environment to prevent conflict and restore relationships after conflict arises.

Workshop Objectives

- Learn the concepts of Restorative Justice as they apply to the school setting.
- Provide ways to effectively address behavior and other complex school issues.
- How to create a supportive environment that can improve learning.
- How to improve safety by preventing future harm .
- Offer alternatives to suspension and expulsion.

Who should attend?

K-12 regular and special educators, school leadership teams, and school building leaders
