

High Impact Professional Learning

Presented by Dr. Jim Knight

Hosted by

CESA 5 is proud to host Dr. Jim Knight - the foremost educational authority on professional learning & coaching. This engaging learning opportunity will inspire educators to incorporate high-yield teaching strategies as part of their daily activities. Built into the framework for great teaching and described in his award-winning book, High-Impact Instruction, Dr. Knight will focus on these critical classroom areas:

- Content Planning - involving guiding questions and learning maps
- Formative Assessment- involving specific proficiencies, checks for understanding, & modifications to teaching
- Engaging Instruction - involving thinking prompts, effective questions, cooperative learning, stories, and authentic learning
- Community Building - friendly culture, power with rather than power over, freedom and modifications to teaching learning, stories, and authentic learning within form, expectations, being a witness to the good, and correcting fluently
