

GROW AS A LITERACY PROFESSIONAL WITH A CERTIFICATE IN LITERACY COACHING

Presented by UW-Oshkosh and the CESA 6 Literacy Center

Grow as a literacy professional with this 9-credit graduate-level program leading to a Certificate in Literacy Coaching

Registration Fees:

- $150 registration fee per course
(due upon registration for each course)

Tuition: $200 per credit

- Course 1: 3 credits x $200 = $600
(credit payment due day 1 of Course 1)
- Course 2: 3 credits x $200 = $600
(credit payment due day 1 of Course 2)
- Course 3: 3 credits x $200 = $600
(credit payment due day 1 of Course 3)

For more information, please contact:

CESA 6 Literacy Center, (920) 236-0562
www.cesa6.org/services/literacy-center

Develop your skills as a literacy coach! Learn with a cohort of colleagues in face-to-face and hybrid courses taught by UW-Oshkosh's nationally recognized faculty and CESA 6 Literacy Center coordinators.

Program description:

- A 9-credit graduate-level program leading to a Certificate in Literacy Coaching
- Course 1: Coaching Models
- Course 2: Content Specific to Cohort Needs
(topic examples include RtI, academic vocabulary, adult learning)
- Course 3: Field Experience

Program emphases:

- Literacy coaching processes and practices that lead to coaching success
- Formats and structures for effective literacy coaching programs
- Key topics addressed in partnerships between teachers and coaches
- Practical experience in authentic coaching partnerships

Who is eligible?

Wisconsin educators holding a 316 reading teacher or 317 reading specialist license. Wisconsin educators serving in the role as a literacy coach may also join.

When:

First 3-Credit Course: Coaching Strategies

- Dates: August 1, 2, 3, 10 and 11, 2016
- Time: 8am – 4pm

Second 3-Credit Course: Literacy and Leadership Topics

- Five Saturdays in Fall, 2016 (Dates selected on August 1)
- Time: 8am – 4pm

Third 3-Credit Course: Field Experience

- Spring 2017