This series is designed for SCHOOL DISTRICTS of ALL SIZES with district teams of individuals who coordinate, administer or serve as a resource or classroom teacher for English Language Learners. The purpose of the meetings is to facilitate discussion about a topic related to the education of English Language Learners. This allows participants to network, ask questions, and construct new meanings by interacting with others in the field.

Topics may include but are not limited to research based strategies which increasing student achievement, instructional resources for use with ELLs, classroom differentiation, WIDA's Can-Do Descriptors, ELL Share Shop, Widening Inclusion, Mini Data Retreats and Working With Diverse Groups of Students Within an RtI Context.

Participants are encouraged to submit their ideas for discussion. Those registered will receive email notices with agendas prior to each session.
