Poverty Simulation

A poverty simulation is a great experience for professionals and community members from 16 years old and up alike to experience what it is really like living in poverty. There will be two types of participants; those who are put into families and have to deal with the daily struggles of poverty, and those who act as the community agencies that assist individuals and families in poverty.

Here is a list of the community agencies:

Utility Company

Bank

Quick Cash

Community Action Agency

Interfaith Services

Food a Rama/Grocers

Police Station

Pawnshop

*Social Services

*receptionist and 1 or 2 case workers

School Teacher

Daycare Teacher

General Employer

Doctor or Nurse

Mortgage/Realty
