

Graduate Credit Opportunity through CESA 6 and Concordia University

Co-Teaching in the K-12 Classroom July 10-August 6, 2016

Co-Teaching in the K-12 Classroom 2-credit course through Concordia University

Facilitator: Dr. Valerie Schmitz, CESA 6 Effectiveness Project Coordinator

Course Description

This course is designed for teachers who are interested in learning how to successfully co-teach in the K-12 classroom. Participants will explore the best practices for communication, assessment, delivery, and environment.

Objectives

- Define co-teaching.
- Understand co-teaching vocabulary.
- Understand theoretical frameworks of co-teaching.
- Identify different types of co-teaching lessons and approaches.
- Describe various types of co-teaching arrangements.

Anticipated Course Outcomes:

At the end of this course, participants will have created co-teaching implementation plan for their own practice.

Assignments

- Active participation in course discussions.
- Reflections on required reading: Beninghof, Anne: Co-Teaching That Works: Strategies for Maximizing Student Learning (2012).
- Co-Teaching Implementation Plan

Who should attend?

K-12 Educators

Date and time:

July 10-August 6, 2016

Location:

- Online
- Optional study group meetings at TBD location

Cost:

$570 (2 credit course)

Register:

Search by event date at www.cesa6.org/professional-development

For more information:

Dr. Valerie Schmitz
CESA 6 Effectiveness Project
Coordinator
(920) 236-0579
vschmitz@cesa6.org

