Intermediate SMARTBoards: Creating Lessons to Engage and Motivate Students

Who: K-12 teachers and other interested educators

When: Saturday, February 12th, 2011 8:30-4:00 (lunch on your own) &

February 22nd & March 8th, 2011 4:00-7:30

@ Adams-Friendship Middle School 420 North Main St., Adams

Description:

Do you already have a SMART Board and consider yourself a user? This intermediate class is for you! Come learn the advanced features of the SMART Board and create engaging and motivating lessons for your students.

This class is not for beginners.

Participants in this two-day, hands-on course will examine the next steps in the effective use of interactive whiteboards (SMARTBoards). Participants will learn how to: 1) Design interactive lessons using grouping pages, creating links, adding attachments, and customizing My Content; 2) Integrate media content using Page recorder, SMART recorder, and online media resources; 3) Add personal style to lessons using object properties, creating themes, tables, and the Lesson Activity toolkit; 4) Explore and discuss uses of the SMART Document Camera, SMART Slate, and SMART Response system; and 5) Utilize additional online resources such as SMART Teacher Hub, SMART Exchange, SMART Training center, various blogs, wikis, and podcasts, and searching for SMART Notebook files on the Internet.

Viterbo Credit: One graduate credit from Viterbo University will be available for $90. Enrollment forms and payment (check or credit card) will be collected on February 12th.

Facilitator: Jennifer Casper, CESA 5

Registration Deadline: Friday, February 4th, 2011

Class is limited to 20 participants, on a first come, first-served basis.
