2011 Wisconsin Early Childhood Indicator Trainings: Child Outcomes Transition Environments

“When the music changes, so does the dance.” - African Proverb

The music is changing in the world of early education, so in order to provide the highest quality services to young children and their families, it's time to learn a new dance.

In this training, participants will become updated on the most recent changes related to the Birth-to-6 Early Childhood Indicators pertaining to: Child Outcomes, Transitions and Environments, and will explore best practices in carrying out the indicator work.

PARTICIPANT OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

1. Review accurate reporting of educational environments and best practice in identifying least restrictive pre-school environments.
2. Review, practice and identify the essential elements of determining high quality reliable outcomes data.
3. Review the transition process, including elements of policy, best practice, interagency agreements, new timeline requirements and PPS reporting.
