Supporting Emergent Readers and Writers for Grades PK-1

Tuesday, November 22, 2016 – 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Presenter: Anne Pagel
Title I and Literacy Center Coordinator

Description

This workshop will focus on the characteristics of the emergent reader and the abundance of literacy work teachers can do before children read and write conventionally. Participants will explore ways to help young children engage with and enjoy books, make meaning, respond to texts by writing and talking, and develop their identities as readers.

Workshop objectives

- Understand the characteristics of the emergent reader/writer.
- Explore a variety of strategies to support early literacy.
- Identify the components of the interactive read aloud and shared reading and their role in supporting early reading skills.
- Explore Interactive writing with young children.

Who should attend?

Pre-K, K and first grade teachers, Title I/Reading Teachers, Reading Literacy Interventionists working with young students.
