Wisconsin (FORT) Foundations of Reading Test Training

Tanya Lange, CESA 6 RITE Instructor
Nancy Jaeger, CESA 6 Educator Licensing Coordinator

Per Wisconsin DPI: Effective January 31, 2014, applicants for initial licensure as an elementary teacher (grades K-5, EC, EC-MC, MC-EA), a special education teacher, a reading teacher, or reading specialist must receive a passing score of 240 or higher on the Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Test. Any licensed teacher wanting to add one or more of these areas to their license must also pass the test.

Description

This training session will help participants prepare for the WI-Foundations of Reading Test (FORT), as well as give them practical instructional information and activities that can be applied in their own teaching experience.

Training topics

- * Overview of the five Essential Literacy Strands
- * Practical tips and guidelines for preparing for the WI-FORT Test
- * Content that addresses English Language Learners
- * Overview of Assessment (Formal and Informal)
- * Age-appropriate learning strategies/activities
- * Practice identifying strengths and weakness of students to better prepare to write Miscue Analysis and Comprehension Analysis Essays
- * Preparation materials and additional lists of resources (online and paper) in order to have a better understanding of the WI-FORT test
