

Web 2.0 Series		Google Series
Adobe Spark	A terrific creation tool for Chromebook users. On this website kids can make their own video clips by combining text, icons and images with music and animation. It's totally free!	Gmail & Google +	Learn about Google Gmail settings and tips to help you get the most out of your Gmail. Also learn about Google + and Communities. It's a great way to collaborate with peers and get DPI information.
IT Discussions	Meet with other IT folks and share problems and solutions to technology in your districts	Google - Getting Started	In this session you will learn about Google for Education, the cloud environment and description of tools.
BadgerLink	Learn how to find great resources and link them to your classroom.	Google Chrome Browser & Extensions	Learn how to use your Chrome browser including how to utilize the many settings available. Learn about extensions and how they can improve the functionality of your browser like never before.
Blogging with Students	Learn to use Blogger or KidBlog	Google Classroom	Learn how to manage all of your classroom assignments with Classroom, Google's solution to content management. Learn how to use the new features and improve your experience with Google Classroom.
Campfire Room	Work time with your favorite tech geek for support.	Google Docs & Draw	Learn all of the menu settings to create a document, use add-ons, margins, formatting, and settings. Use Draw to add watermarks, background images or borders to a document. Learn how to use revision history and translation. Chat and leave comments.
Chromebook 101 - local storage, download, upload to PC...	Learn how your Chromebook works, including local storage and using Google offline. Learn how to upload pictures and video, and some shortcuts and tips to make your Chromebook work for you.	Google Drive & Drive Apps	Learn how to organize files in drive, share documents and folders. Get apps that allow you to create documents and save them into your drive.
Coding in the Classroom	Learn how to use Blockly and Code.org with your students, to start learning how to code!	Google Educator Level 1 Certification Study Hall	Get ready to take your certification test with examples from the website and discussions with others on what to expect.
Digital Storytelling	Learn how to use StoryJumper to create digital storybooks.	Google Educator Level 1 Certification Test	180 minute test. Sign up 7 days prior to the day you want to take the test. Pay $10 to register at: https://goo.gl/Gfrp0l
Easy Photo Editing	Learn how to easily edit photos and add great filters, annotate and add clipart using Pixlr Express and other great free apps.	Google for Elementary	Come and share your practices and ideas for using Google in the Elementary classroom
EdPuzzle	The easiest way to engage your students with videos. pick a video, add your questions and track your students' understanding. Teacher, start now.	Google Forms & Autograde	Google forms and the variety of ways to use it in your classroom. Learn how to use the NEW autograde feature and how to view and manage grades.
Green Screen & iMovie	Bring your Mac and learn how to use a green screen with iMovie	Google Keep and Calendar	Learn how to use Google Keep to organize your notes and lists and create reminders. Also learn how to use Calendar and utilize all the settings in Calendar. You'll also leave knowing how to invite participants to an event and schedule meetings around other's schedules. Save time and keep it organized.
Infographics	Learn how to create infographics for your students - using Glogster, Easel.ly and ThingLink	Google Maps/Earth	Learn how to explore the world in a new, exciting way. Let your kids walk down the streets of Dhaka and experience culture in a whole new way!
Making Posters & Flyers	Learn how to use LucidPress, PosterMyWall and more to make great posters and flyers.	Google Sheets Advanced	Learn more about formulas, graphing and advanced functions of Google Sheets
Malware, Password Security & Staying Safe!	Learn how to keep yourself and your computer safe.	Google Sheets for Beginners	Learn how to create basic formulas, use auto-fill, freeze headers and columns, settings, filtering and sorting.
Math Round Table	Start with a great list of Math apps and resources. Share and learn about what works in your mathematics classroom and add to the collection of apps and resources.	Google Slides	Learn how to create a presentation, find templates, add transitions and animations, video, images. Learn about menus and settings, sharing and collaborating, chatting with collaborators and leaving comments.
QR Codes & Ideas	Learn how to create QR codes and find apps that read QR codes with most any device.	NEW Google Sites Level 1	Google Sites Level 1 will give you a good start to making a Google site using the NEW Google Sites!
Quiz & Polling Tools	Learn about engaging assessment tools that gets kids to want to review and test their knowledge. Tools like Flash cards, Plickers, kahoot and more will be reviewed.	NEW Google Sites Level 2	Google Sites Level 2 will give you a chance to work on your site and learn advanced tips for making a great site.
Science Round Table	Start with a great list of Science apps and resources. Share and learn about what works in your science classroom and add to the collection of apps and resources.	Programming GScript	Learn about Google Apps Script that provides easy ways to automate tasks across Google products and third party services and build web applications.
Screen Capture & Flipped Ideas	Learn how to use Jing and ScreenCastify for blending your classroom instruction and recording lessons, messages to parents and more.	Video Editing with YouTube	Learn how to edit videos in YouTube, create your own channel and post your videos for your classroom or the world!
Troubleshooting Tech	Get your troubleshooting skills sharpened and learn how to troubleshoot a myriad of technology problems
Virtual Reality	goggles and how they can change your world! This will be a basic introduction to using VR goggles. It will give you a chance to explore and see what it's all about.
Weebly Websites Level 1	Weebly Level 1 will give you a good start to creating a Weebly website
Weebly Websites Level 2	Weebly Level 2 will give you a chance to work on your site and learn advanced tips for making a great site.
WPT & WI Media Lab	Wisconsin Public television and Wisconsin Media Lab have joined forces to provide you with awesome video resources, browse by grade and subject		