

The Pyramid Model for Social Emotional Competence in Young Children: An Overview

NO COST TO PARTICIPANTS!
SNACKS PROVIDED

Bring a child care partner along!

Tuesday, May 3, 2011
1:00 – 3:30 p.m.
CESA #3-Conference Room A
1300 Industrial Drive
Fennimore, WI 53809

Join us for an overview of the Center on the Social Emotional Foundation of Early Learning (CSEFEL) Pyramid Model for supporting social and emotional competence in children ages birth through five.

This systematic, evidence-based framework promotes the social emotional development of all young children as well as helps prevent and address challenging behavior.

This presentation will provide:

1. An introduction to the tiers of the Pyramid - Relationships, Environments, Targeted Social Emotional Supports, and Intensive Intervention
2. Research that supports the framework
3. Keys to effective and ongoing use of strategies
4. Connections to Positive Behavior Intervention & Supports (PBIS)
5. Upcoming training opportunities

Who Should Attend?
School teams, parents, childcare personnel, family resource staff, public health staff working with young children from birth through kindergarten.

Workshop content questions?
Contact Becca Lewis Clifton, blewis-clifton@cesa3.k12.wi.us or 608-822-3276, X. 278 (CESA #3) OR Susan Donahoe at sdonahoe@cesa2.k12.wi.us or 608-289-3955 (CESA #2)

This activity is funded through IDEA Discretionary Funds from the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.

To register go to: www.myquickreg.com by April 28, 2011. If you have questions on how to register please call 608-822-3276, x. 214. Please note this does not meet the Youngster 15-Hour Minimum Credit.