

Statewide Title I Network

Cheryl Simonson & Mary Ann Hudziak

Data Analysis: Connecting Title I Programs to School Improvement

This workshop will focus on embedding Title I programming as part of school improvement that attends to student learning and answers key questions: How do Title I students perform compared to students in their cohort? What percent of Title I students are released from the program? Are learning gains of released students maintained? What data system does your Title I and School have in place to ensure programming is meeting student needs? How can Title I connect to the bigger picture of School Improvement?
