

Implementing Writer's Workshop in the ELA Classroom

February 9, 2018

9:00 AM – 3:30 PM

CESA #12
Conference Center

---

In this session, language arts teachers will explore effective teaching practices within the writer's workshop framework. Participants will learn practical teaching strategies, create anchor charts, and explore a variety of resources to use in the classroom around the areas of whole group mini-lessons, small group guided instruction, and independent writing conferences. This session will help teachers structure their reading/language block and incorporate the gradual release framework effectively for student achievement while instilling the love of writing.

Presenters: Amanda Trautt, CESA #12 Educational Consultant and Julie Jensen, CESA #12 Educational Consultant

Registration Fees:

$65 CESA #12 Developing Expert Teacher Consortium District Members (Ashland & Chequamegon Middle School)

$125 all other registrations

**Registration fees cover breaks, lunch and materials*

Viterbo Credit School Year 2017-2018 Available

Facilitating Student Success EDUC 548-052 July 1, 2017 – April 15, 2018 or

Facilitating Student Success EDUC 548-053 July 1, 2017 – June 30, 2018

(Attend any 2-full day CESA #12 trainings identified for credit availability to be eligible for 1 graduate credit)

You may apply for a maximum of 3 credits

More can be found on our website: <http://www.cesa12.org/viterbo-credit>