

Putting Math Practices into Action

March 1, 2018

CESA #12 Conference Center

Registration: 8:30 AM

Training: 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

You've adopted the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics. So, what now? Participants of this workshop will gain a deeper understanding of the principles and actions needed to build a strong mathematics program. Practical pedagogical strategies to help move student thinking forward will be investigated through large and small sessions focused on establishing mathematical goals, implementing rich tasks that support productive struggle, connecting representations through meaningful discourse, building procedural fluency and conceptual understanding, and eliciting student thinking via purposeful questioning.

Audience: This workshop is for Math Teachers, Math Coaches, Math Specialists, and Math Curriculum Chairs in Grades K-12. Administrators are welcome to attend!

Break-out sessions will take place for PK-5, 6-8 and 9-12

Presenters:

Dr. Jennifer Kosiak, Wisconsin Mathematics Council Board of Directors President. Jennifer is a mathematics educator at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse. She has taught over 16 years at a variety of grade levels. She also conducts professional development for PK-12 mathematics teachers.

Wendy Meyer, Wisconsin Mathematics Council Board of Directors, Treasurer: Wendy currently teaches at Edgerton High School, and will be finishing her 24th year of teaching mathematics this year. She is also the K-12 Mathematics Curriculum Chair for the Edgerton School District

Tammy Moynihan, Wisconsin Mathematics Council Board of Directors, Grades 9-12 Representative: Tammy is in her 22nd year of teaching mathematics at Oconto Falls High School. She also conducts professional development for mathematics educators.

Registration Fee: $25 per participant, includes lunch and materials. Each participant will receive an ebook of Principles to Actions for free. **This training is being support by the Wisconsin Math Council.

Registration Deadline: February 22, 2018 - **We cannot accept registrations after this date.
