What's the Next Step to your PDP Completion?

Attending...
The How-To's on Documenting Completion of Your PDP!

You'll have more fun than a barrel of monkeys!

Participants will learn the process and procedures to complete the PDP documenting evidence of professional growth and the effect of that growth on student learning. Participants must bring at least 3-5 pieces of evidence to the workshop along with your PDP. Laptops are recommended.

Contents of the workshop include:

- Overview of procedures for documenting completion of the PDP
- Selecting evidence
- Navigating the change process through evidence of growth
- Articulating the results of growth on student learning
- Describing change related to the professional standards
- Following procedures for labeling and describing evidence
- Completing the summary and reflection
- Ensuring all components are completed
- Possible verification of PDP completion by PDP Team Members

Who Should Attend

Educators who have their goal approved and have implemented their PDP after at least 1 year.

About the Presenter:

Kathy Larson-Professional Development Consultant: Emphasis PI 34 and Professional Growth

Kathy Larson has concentrated her efforts on researching and developing learning opportunities that increase performances of organizations and the people who work within them. Her group facilitation skills have been sought by a wide variety of public and private organizations seeking to create healthy climates that merge the gifts, talents, and abilities of all people in the system.

Kathy has devoted the past seven years researching and developing products that assist educators in the pursuit of personal and professional goals. She is the state's lead facilitator for PDP Team Training and considered an expert on the implementation of PI 34. She contributed to the authorship of two DPI publications: The Professional Development Plan Educator Toolkit and The Professional Development Plan Team Toolkit. She is currently conducting workshops on identifying educator dispositions and how to use that knowledge to create healthy professional climates. She has done numerous national and state presentations, most recently at the National Symposium for Dispositions. She is co-author of "The Mentoring Year: A Step by Step Program for Professional Development," (Corwin Press, 2003) and Reflection as a Disposition (in press).
