

Reader's Café

The 2018-19 Reader's Café book, Engagement by Design, is jam-packed with realistic strategies for improving student engagement in your school and classroom. Get onboard now to start your reading before summer ends; you'll want to take advantage of great ideas to help you set the stage to an amazing school year!

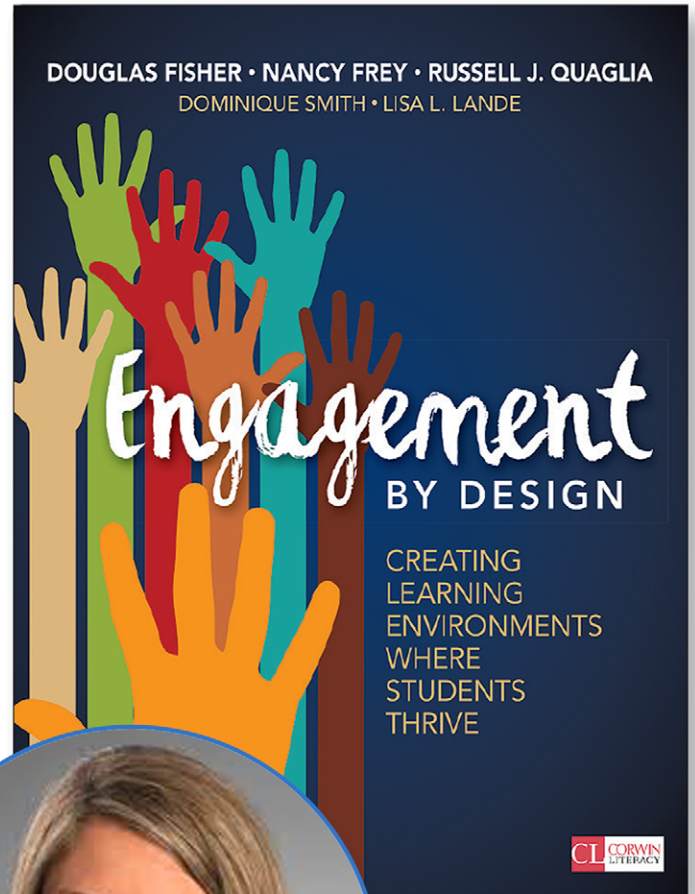

What's on the menu at Reader's Café?

- Suggested Pacing Guide: Recommended pacing spans the entire school year. You'll have ample time to read, set goals, practice techniques, reflect, and collaborate with your colleagues at a pace that supports growth, learning, and school/classroom transformation.
- Facilitator's Guide: Nominate one member of your group as facilitator, and use this simple guide to promote group success.
- Individual Journal template: Keep track of key ideas, goals, progress, and reflections with your individual journal.
- Group Journal template: Suggest topics for group discussion and stay on track with a group journal.

Click here to get started:
Reader's Café!

<https://goo.gl/forms/4egNhSIYoI0y3zjm2>

Just for

Wisconsin Educators

Chat with the author Lisa Lande online! Ms. Lande will join us online for TWO webinars over the course of the 2018-19 school year. She'll be available to answer your questions, share ideas, and provide expert feedback on your experiences around student engagement.

Dates to be announced!

Only $27.95
when you order
on corwin.com.

Use discount code
N183M7 at checkout. Includes free shipping.