

Reading Intervention for Struggling Readers

CESA 8 • 223 West Park Street • Gillett, WI 54124

Audience: ELA teachers (4-8), Special education teachers (3-12), reading specialists, interventionists, EL teachers and paraprofessionals

Course 1: Reading Intervention for Struggling Readers, Monday, July 30, 2018 Grades 3-8

9:00 AM – 2:30 PM

This is an introductory session and is intended for participants who have had no prior training in Direct Instruction programs. Participants will learn a variety of strategies for teaching decoding, fluency and comprehension through the Direct Instruction methodology and will leave with knowledge and skills to implement specific programs targeted for their students' needs.

Cost: $125 for CESA 8 – CIA Members School Districts, $250 for all others

Course 2: Multisyllabic Word Reading for Struggling Readers, Grades 4 and Above

Wednesday, August 1, 2018

9:00 AM – 2:30 PM

This session is a great follow up to Reading Intervention for Struggling Readers Grades 3-8 (Course 1), although it is not a required prerequisite. Participants will learn a flexible decoding strategy for teaching multisyllabic words. Students need to internalize this strategy in order to read grade level text with accuracy and understanding. Participants will learn the direct instruction methodology and will leave with knowledge and skills to implement specific programs targeted for their student's needs.

Cost: $125 for CESA 8 – CIA Members School Districts, $250 for all others

Course 3: Reading Intervention for Struggling Readers, Grades 6-8

Friday, August 3, 2018

9:00AM – 11:30 PM

It is recommended, but not required, that participants attend Reading Intervention for Struggling Readers Grades 3-8 (Course 1) before attending this session. Participants will learn a variety of strategies for teaching advanced decoding, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension through the Direct Instruction methodology and programming and will leave with knowledge and skills to implement specific programs targeted for their students' needs. This session is best suited for students in grades 6-8 who are reading at or above the 4th grade level. They struggle with multisyllabic decoding, mild fluency issues, and mixed comprehension issues.

Cost: $65 for CESA 8 – CIA Members School Districts, $125 for all others

Course 4: Intensive Intervention for Struggling Readers, Grades 4-8

Friday, August 3, 2018

12:00 PM – 2:30 PM

This session meets the needs of students in grades 4-8 who are reading at the non-reader through 2nd grade level. Direct Instruction methodologies and programming will provide you with the knowledge and skills to implement specific programs targeted for older students with severe decoding and comprehension issues.

Cost: $65 for CESA 8 – CIA Members School Districts, $125 for all others

Registration – myquickreg.com

Instructor: Amy McGovern, Reading Specialist, Wausau School District

Cost: $125.00 per participant; full day sessions, 65.00 for half day sessions

More Information: Contact Darla Brink at dbrink@cesa8.org

