

Digital Learning Summer 2018

Workshops

These learning opportunities are held at CESA 2 for face-to-face instruction. You can earn PD hours and/or grad credit if needed.

Video

June 14-15 	WI Information and Technology Literacy Standards Integration Audience: Teams if possible: C&I, Coaches/Lib Media, teachers WI recently published the Information and Technology Literacy Standards based on the ISTE student standards. Now it is time for us to integrate these standards across the content areas. Come collaborate, unpack, and pack those standards back into a format that works for your local learning environment.	$275
June 18-20 	Google Educator Cert Level 1 (Level 2 can come for guided study) Audience: Anyone Looking to learn more about Google Apps and how to integrate into your classroom? Want to get Google Educator Certified - Level 1? Let's get ready together! Come learn how to leverage Google Drive, Docs, Slides, Forms, Sheets, and others for your educational environment while preparing for the Google Educator Level 1 certification assessment. Participant is responsible for assessment cost ($10/$25).	$395
July 9 	Intro to the SMART Learning Suite Audience: Anyone During this session, attendees will learn the new feature of SMART Notebook as well as the option of SMART Amp. Lesson ideas and examples will be shared to make sure you leave this session ready to start or continue your SMART journey. Tierney Brothers will be facilitating this workshop.	$250
July 10-11 	Innovation X Camp Audience: Anyone eXperience - eXplore - eXperiment - eXpand - eXpress Is it time to integrate innovative tools and strategies into your educational setting? This is for you! We will discover and explore virtual reality, augmented reality, digital media, breakout edu, coding and other innovative media to support future ready students! You will have time to apply and implement into your curriculum so you are ready to go in the fall!	$275
July 30 	SMART Digital Educator Program Audience: Educators This workshop will focus on instructional strategies which create a student-centered learning experience incorporating various SMART and third-party tools. Examples and strategies on how SMART tools can be integrated into whole group, small group, 1-on-1, and independent practice will be shared. This session will be highly collaborative and teachers will leave with strategies and lesson content to integrate into their classrooms immediately. Tierney Brothers will be facilitating this workshop.	$250

beth.clarke@cesa2.org

Digital Learning Summer 2018

Aug 6 	Personalizing Science with Tech Tools Audience: Science teachers 4-12 grades Are you a science teacher who is in need of refreshing your content with new innovative tools? This is the workshop for you! Come learn new digital tools and strategies to apply to your learning environment. You will leave with fresh ideas and applications that will enhance your science lessons!	$175
Aug 7-8 	Closing Gaps: The Equity Institute Audience: Anyone (teams are helpful) Kathleen Budge will discuss the five powerful practices for disrupting poverty from her recently released book of the same title through ASCD. Disrupting Poverty: Five Powerful Practices. Gloria Ladson-Billings will dive into critical components of culturally relevant pedagogy and explore the critical role these understandings play in preparing all students for a successful future in our diverse and ever-changing society. Crossing over to Canaan: The Journey of New Teachers in Diverse Classrooms	$400
Aug 9 	Foundations of Personalized Learning Audience: Anyone This full-day session designed for teachers and administrators will provide an introduction to the Institute for Personalized Learning's Honeycomb Model and definition of personalized learning. This in-depth look will focus on deep thinking about elements of learning and teaching and how those look different in a personalized learning environment. Participants will be invited to think about where leverage points may exist in their own systems to create a learner-centric environment.	$175
Aug 13 & Oct 9 	Ready to Blend Learning Audience: Teams of Admin, coaches, and teachers highly recommended Blended learning combines online digital media with traditional classroom methods. It requires the presence of both teacher and student, student learns partial online, and with some element of student control over time, place, path, or pace. Dive into interactive learning on the power of implementing blended learning with fidelity. Bring a team for this training!	$275
Aug 15 Nov 15 Feb 15 	Future Ready Leadership Camp Audience: District level leadership team including Admin, C&I, Tech, Coaches/Lib Media Districts across the nation are taking the Future Ready Schools Pledge. What does that mean? Learn about the seven gears and how they work together with the WI Digital Learning Plan. Bring your leadership team to learn how to apply the framework to your local context to build your future ready schools plan. P.S. This is a comprehensive district plan: team suggestions include Superintendent, C&I Director, Tech Director, Principals, Library Media Specialists, and lead-teachers.	$395

CESA 2

Digital Learning Summer 2018

June 25-27

ISTE International Conference! Follow on twitter #CESA2DL

Follow on Twitter

beth.clarke@cesa2.org

