

CESA 6 Announces. . .

2018 Data Retreat / Needs Assessment (2-day Workshop)

Monday, July 23 - Tuesday, July 24, 2018 • 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Facilitator: Mary Ann Hudziak
CESA 6 Teaching and Learning Consultant

Purpose

This two-day data retreat is designed for school or district leadership teams to collaboratively investigate end-of-year student data to inform future improvement planning.

Activities

School or district leadership teams will engage in a structured data inquiry process to investigate the attainment and growth of students in their school(s) over the past one to three years. Teams will utilize online technology to access and study data findings, while documenting their work. Data findings will lead to a process into potential root causes for critical data findings. Teams will leave the retreat with:

- Essential achievement data questions
- Current data charts and graphs that answer essential questions
- Summarized and prioritized data findings
- Data-informed goals for improvement
- Hypotheses of practices as likely contributing root causes
- Draft of possible actions for improvement planning
- Plan to continue improvement planning and launch goals and plans with staff.

What to Bring

- Collaborative mindset
- Leadership teams who understand the purpose for data inquiry and needs assessment for school improvement planning
- Laptop computers
- LCD projector
- WISEdash for Districts access at the student analyst level
- Access to local interim assessments or data warehouse tools

Each data team will choose the context for their team:

- K-8 Literacy
- K-8 Mathematics
- 8-12 College-Career
- English Learners
