

Cassandra Erkens

presents

Getting to Instructional Agility

How do you know the students learned it?

Designing assessment practices that get to instructional agility.

CESA #12 Conference Center

Tuesday, January 8, 2019

Registration: 8:30 AM - Training: 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Participants will...

- Discover how instructional agility fits within the six tenets of essential assessment framework.
- Learn how to foster and maintain a culture of learning in K–12 classrooms.
- Gain strategies and tools to enhance instructional agility and assessment practices.
- Consider examples of instructional agility in action.
- Draft an action plan for moving forward; to "Getting to Instructional Agility."

BIO: Cassandra Erkens is a presenter, facilitator, coach, trainer of trainers, keynote speaker, author, and above all, a teacher. She presents nationally and internationally on assessment, instruction, school improvement, and professional learning communities.

Registration fee(s)

$0 for 1st, 2nd, or 3rd Year Initial Educators and their Mentors

$125 for all other registrations

Registration deadline: December 19, 2018 (registrations cancelled after this date are nonrefundable).

Register online here: <https://login.myquickreg.com>

