Be WISE: Best Practices and Resources for CTE Teachers

Thursday, June 21, 2018 – 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Description:

The workshop will focus on providing research based resources and teaching strategies to support Career and Technical Education in Wisconsin. The hands-on workshop will provide teachers with the opportunity to explore resources that support financial literacy, entrepreneurship, work based learning, project management, project based learning, and much more. Teachers will leave the day-long workshop with a toolkit for implementing at least six resources to support their current curriculum.

Goals:

- Understand how to access research-based instructional resources including financial literacy, employability skills, entrepreneurship, ethical leadership, college and career readiness, project management and more
- Minimum of six resources identified, topics covered and plans to implement into next year's courses
- Knowledgeable about how to use the Learning Center
- Project plan to use the resources
