

Sheltered Instruction

SIOP Foundations

2 Day Training: December 12th, 2018 and March 13th, 2019

Presenter: Tere Masiarchin

Director, Language and Culture Center, CESA 2

Description

Need valuable, ready to use strategies for teaching your ELs? This guided demonstration workshop will combine research with ready to use strategies for sheltering your instruction with English learners! Get ready for an amazing 2 days of engaging strategies you can immediately use with your English learners.

Objectives

- Understand the 8 SIOP components
- Practice the features of SIOP lesson plans
- Implement SIOP into their lesson plans

Registration Details

Registration Fee

- FREE CESA 4 Title III Consortium Members
- $150 per person for Non-Consortium Members

Fee includes materials, continental breakfast. NOTE: Lunch will be on your own each day.

Dates and Time:

December 12th, 2018 and March 13th, 2019

8:30AM-3:00PM (each day)

On-site check in:

8-8:30AM each day

Location:

CESA 4
923 East Garland Street
West Salem, WI 54669

Register:

Online registration available at myQuickReg.com

For more information:

Jan Marson
Director of Instructional Services
(608) 786-4814
jmarson@CESA4.org

About the facilitator

Tere Masiarchin has been working in the field of ESOL with teachers, administrators, and students since 1999. She has been an ESL K-12 Teacher, a family literacy teacher, and ESL/Bilingual Program Director.

Tere is the Director of the Language and Culture Center at CESA 2. The Language and Culture Center provides ELL & Bilingual support to districts through professional development, online resources, and in-district ESL & Bilingual teachers.

Tere is passionate about making professional development practical for classroom teacher, so the tools acquired can be immediately incorporated into the classroom. Tere has been a teacher and knows your time is valuable!