Presenter:

Tere Masiarchin, Senior Director, CESA 2 Language & Culture Center of Excellence

Description:

The CESA 2 ELL Network provides high quality professional development and program support to school districts and teachers with culturally and linguistically diverse students. We facilitate the sharing of ideas, resources, and expertise within our member districts.

The ELL Network is Free for Title III Consortium members. Non-members may join and access valuable resources and networking opportunities, including:

- 4 full-day meetings with materials, lunch, and snack
- Online resources for topics of network meetings
- Online office hours/coaching once a month
- ELevate Tips, Newsletters, and Videos.

About the 4 Full-Day Meetings:

Mornings will focus on DPI updates, ESSA requirements, ACCESS updates and timelines, Family Engagement, Culturally Responsive Teachings and Learning, and ELL program development.

Afternoons will focus on the book Unlocking ELs Potential. The book's author, Dr. Diane Staehr Fenner, will join us for two webinars throughout the year.

Grad Credits:

Up to 3 Grad Credits are available from Concordia College at an additional cost.

Tere Masiarchin provides high quality and relevant professional development, needs assessment, and program support to school districts and teachers with culturally and linguistically diverse students.
