

The Reading Strategies Book Study

"...Jennifer Serravallo's new book is the kind of book I have been looking for since I started teaching because I always felt like my guided reading instruction could be better. I have a strong feeling that this book will be sitting in the little pile that I always keep by my side throughout the year...."

Looking for a new resource to guide you in developing skilled readers? The Reading Strategies Book by Jennifer Serravallo is your go-to toolkit to complement and extend your teaching. Use this book to help plan your lessons and implement goal-directed, differentiated instruction for individuals, small groups, and whole classes.

Join us as we explore this book for reading strategies and goal setting ideas, strategy review, and lesson design ideas.

Dates:

January 29, 2019 from 9:00 - 2:30 at CESA 9
February 13, 2019 from 3:30 - 4:30 Online
March 11, 2019 from 3:30 - 4:30 Online
April 18, 2019 from 3:30 - 4:30 Online

Registration Fee:

$125.00/person for School Improvement Members (Includes Book and lunch for face-to-face date)
$225.00/person for Non-School Improvement Members

Locations:

CESA 9, Tomahawk, WI and Online

Audience:

Initial Regular & Special Education, all educators K-6 looking to focus reading instruction, Reading Teachers, and Reading Specialists

CESA 9 Contact:

Casey Gretzinger, cgretzinger@cesa9.org

Registration Link: <https://login.myquickreg.com/register/agency/event/event.cfm?eventid=22135>