Social Studies tie to Disciplinary Literacy

Reschedule date:

WISCONSIN STANDARDS FOR SOCIAL STUDIES: INTEGRATION OF WISCONSIN STANDARDS FOR LITERACY IN ALL SUBJECTS

The Wisconsin Standards for Literacy in All Subjects, adopted in 2011, require all teachers, K-12, in every content area, to consider discipline-appropriate literacy techniques (also known as disciplinary literacy) with their students.

Disciplinary literacy (DL) in social studies means that teachers are using thoughtfully chosen literacy techniques to teach students social studies objectives (instead of using social studies to learn literacy objectives).

Learn connections between the two documents, resources for incorporating DL into classrooms and curriculum, and have time to review your existing curriculum for gaps.

This workshop is intended for middle school and high school social studies teachers.
