DON'T WE ALREADY DO INCLUSION?

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2019
9AM-3PM

Are you trying to grow the inclusive schooling model in your community?
Do you feel like you have tried everything to create change in your school?
Do you want to "sharpen the saw" and become re-energized as an advocate or educator?

This presentation is filled with ideas for teaching diverse learners and is focused on change itself; more specifically, on how those concerned about inclusion can create change even when they are not in positions of power. The activities, examples, and illustrations in this workshop are designed to help participants refine their vision and their skills when it comes to inclusion. The Ideas are no or low cost and many can be achieved by any number of stakeholders - including students and families. Come and learn tried and true techniques as well some out-of-the-box solutions such as involving traditional and social media, "shrinking" the change, phoning for help, advertising and writing your way to progress...
