

Recharge Your Classroom With Readers' Workshop

CESA #12 Conference Center

March 27, 2019

Registration: 8:30 AM

Training: 9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

In this session, reading/language arts teachers will explore effective teaching practices within the readers' workshop framework. Participants will learn practical teaching strategies, create anchor charts, and explore a variety of resources to use in the classroom around the areas of whole group, shared, guided, and independent reading that support Wisconsin State Standards utilizing your core reading program. This session will help teachers structure their reading/language block and incorporate the gradual release framework effectively for student achievement while instilling the love of reading.

Presenters:

Julie Jensen, CESA #12 Educational Consultant

Target Audience:

K-12 Educators

Early Bird Registration fee: (before March 13, 2019)

$65 CESA #12 Developing Expert Teacher Consortium Districts (Ashland, Bayfield, Chequamegon)

$125 all other registrations

Registration fee: (after March 13, 2019)

$90 CESA #12 Developing Expert Teacher Consortium Districts (Ashland, Bayfield, Chequamegon)

$150 all other registrations

Register online: <https://login.myquickreg>