

From Engagement to Empowerment
for Every Learner!

A little polar vortex can't stop

SHELLEY MOORE!

Register your team now to attend the rescheduled event:
Best Practices to Equitably Provide Support and Meet the Needs of All Students

April 4th or 5th, 2019

Mid-State Technical College, Stevens Point, WI

8:00<sup>am</sup> - 3:00<sup>pm</sup>

Registration is FREE and includes lunch!

Take advantage of this exciting, hands-on opportunity to work with nationally-known speaker, inclusive education researcher, and storyteller Dr. Shelley Moore. Shelley will be in Wisconsin to inspire and strategize with school-based teams of teachers and administrators working together to close opportunity & achievement gaps; identify current practices that may be barriers to achievement; and explore best practices for meeting the needs of ALL LEARNERS.

REGISTER NOW!

Recommended team size: 5-10. All team members must register individually.

Simply click on your preferred date, April 4 or 5, 2019.

Registration managed by CESA 5

Educator teams may also participate at their local CESA via live broadcast.

Contact your CESA for more information.

or

Mid-State Technical College, Community Engagement Room
1001 Centerpoint Drive, Stevens Point, WI 54481

Click here for MAP