

World-Class Instructional Design and Assessment

WIDA supports academic language development and academic achievement for linguistically diverse students through high quality standards, assessments, research, and professional development for educators.

Target Audience: ELL Coordinators and ELL Teachers, Classroom teachers that provide instruction for ELL students. and Principals.

Title of Training: Using the WIDA Standards for Classroom Instruction.

Training date: February 23, 2012

Location and Time: CESA#3, Conference Room C/D from 9:00am to 2:30pm

Registration: <http://login.myquickreg.com/event/event.cfm?eventid=2358>

Cost: ELL Teachers and Coordinators can attend FREE of charge.

Additional participants can attend for $40.00 to cover meal and copy costs.

Non-CESA#3 participants can attend for $150.00

Summary:

This workshop will allow the participants the opportunity to review the WIDA Standards and learn how to use the WIDA Model Performance Indicators for classroom instruction.

In this training, participants will develop the following:

- An understanding of WIDA Standards basics
- An understanding of the “Can Do” descriptors and scaffolding language
- An understanding of writing content, language objectives, and language functions
- An understanding of components of Model Performance Indicators and how to them in lesson plans
- An opportunity to explore a variety of activities appropriate for all students.
- An understanding of the role and responsibilities of ELL Coordinators as a support for instruction

Presenter: Dr. Joy S. McLaughlin, Ed. D.

CESA#2, 4 and 5 ELL Coordinators and Teachers can attend. Please contact your CESA for more information.

Any additional questions, please contact Dr. Sharon Ennis, CESA#3 ELL Coordinator.