Dr. Karen Mapp Workshop Series

Scholastic and Dr. Karen Mapp have created a comprehensive training series that helps educators engage families in meaningful partnerships focused on improving student achievement.

What's Included?

This series of three full-day interactive workshops will equip your team with everything they'll need to implement a comprehensive family and community engagement plan. All workshops will run from 9:00AM–3:00PM, and a continental breakfast, snacks, and lunch will be included.

- Three training sessions led by expert family engagement practitioners
- Participant guides and interactive activities
- Hands-on strategies that can be implemented immediately
- Yearlong action plan

Who Should Attend?

In order to maximize the impact of the series, teams of five should participate in all three trainings.

Your team should include:

- Central office administrators
- Principals
- Teachers
- Family and community representatives

We hope you can join us!

To learn more, please contact Colleen Timm, Learning Services Director, CESA 7, at ctimm@cesa7.org.

Register at: CESA 7 REGISTRATION LINK

This training series is contingent on the total number of registrants, so we encourage you to share this information with neighboring districts. The presenter will present in person at CESA 2 on October 21, at CESA 5 on November 7, and at CESA 7 on December 9. The presentation will be live-streamed to the other CESAs and registrants attending the sessions at the CESA in their region.
