Description:

The Wisconsin Statewide Parent Educator Initiative (WSPEI) invites your school district pupil services and special education directors to invite a parent in your district to receive free training on how to partner with your district and model family-school partnerships. This program provides the school district and parent with guidance on the potential roles of the district liaison and also provides support and training throughout the partnership.

The training is for District identified Parent or Family Liaisons. However, any parent, family member or educator is welcome to join us.

Day 1 Topics:

WSPEI Grant & DFEL Program Overview
College and Career Ready IEPs
Communications & Partnerships

Day 2 Topics:

Transition Planning
Navigating Special Education Resources
Family Engagement
Confidentiality

Presenters: Hector Portillo and Carlene Chavez
