

Supported Transitions: Supporting the Transition from High School to College, Work, and Independent Living

Facilitators: Deb Muskett, CESA #12, Lisa Pugh, ARC of Wisconsin, Parent Panel, Service Providers in the CESA 12 area, Heidi Diesterhoft, WITC, Kathy Tuttle - WI TIG

Parents, teachers, and service providers struggle with the reality of the transition from high school for their child with disabilities.

Join us to hear how parents navigate the options for their children, and learn about the services available in our area. You may be surprised to find how many services are available, and that you are not alone in your search for options!

February 18, 2020

Heidi Diesterhoft, WITC, will talk about the hospitality program coming to WITC designed for students with disabilities. The SEARCH program will be defined and displayed by Deb Muskett, CESA 12 and links to other services available in the CESA 12 area will be provided by Kathy Tuttle, WI TIG.

Parent Panel

Parents of children with disabilities who have navigated the transition from high school to college, work, and independent living share their successes, struggles, and helpers along the way.
