

Co-plan to Co-Serve Students who are D/HH/DB

Co-Plan to Co-Serve 2020/2021

This workshop is being offered for teams to develop the building blocks necessary to provide comprehensive cohesive services to deaf, hard of hearing, and deafblind students. We will address the challenges of various instructional models during this series.

Registration:

<http://bit.ly/dhhcoplan>

Accessibility:

- Interpreter (Voice & ASL)

Contact:

Heidi Hollenberger

heidi.hollenberger@wesp-dhh.wi.gov

Stacie Heckendorf

anastasia.heckendorf@wesp-dhh.wi.gov

When: 8:00 - 10:00 am - Friday mornings

- Oct 30
- Dec 11
- Jan 29
- Mar 5
- April 16
- May 28

Who Should Participate:

- Teams supporting students who are deaf/hard of hearing/deafblind that would like to learn more about co-planning to co-serve this unique population of students. Teams may include general and special ed teachers, audiologists, interpreters, SLPs, early interventionists, administrators, etc.

Details:

- Must participate in the whole series of workshops
- Teams are encouraged to join together so they can work on plans for real students

