Title: Restorative Practice Training Series

Facilitated by: Dr. Marci Waldron-Kuhn

Date & Time:	December 16, 2020 - (Noon - 3:30 p.m.) January 27, 2021 - (8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.) February 24, 2021 - (Noon - 3:30 p.m.) March 24, 2021 - (8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.)
Place:	VIRTUAL
Intended Audience:	Classroom Teacher, Special Education Teachers, Paraprofessionals, Principals/Administration
What you will learn:	The purpose of Restorative Practices is to build healthy communities, increase social capital, decrease antisocial behavior, repair harm, and restore relationships. Learners will be introduced to restorative practice techniques such as community circles, using affective statements and questions, impromptu conferencing/restorative conversations, and formal conferencing. Learners will be able to use restorative practices in their work with students to build and maintain trusting relationships with adults and peers, a positive school community, and repair harm. This training is meant for district teams to attend to build their foundational knowledge of restorative practices and to develop an implementation action plan and build their own capacity to lead this work.
