

Leading Schools Through Challenging Times: A Continuous Improvement Primer

This past year, schools and districts everywhere faced unprecedented challenges as they responded to COVID-19. The Special Education and School Improvement Services departments at CESA 5, as part of our Technical Assistance Network, in collaboration with the Wisconsin RtI Center, have teamed up to support ongoing efforts. We are offering this four part virtual series to provide guidance and networking opportunities to district leaders and leadership teams as they continue to navigate the changes and obstacles ahead.
