

Choosing and Using Decodable Texts

with Wiley Blevins

Tuesday, June 15, 2021

3:00pm-4:30pm

FREE Virtual Event!

Participants will examine what decodable texts are and the role they play in early reading instruction. In addition, ideas to enhance the use of decodable books to build fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension will be explored to make these early learning tools more impactful.

Wiley Blevins taught elementary school in both the United States and South America and completed his graduate work in education at Harvard University. He is an author of 16 books for teachers including A Fresh Look at Phonics and Meaningful Phonics and Word Study. He regularly works with teachers and reading coaches throughout the U.S. and Asia.
