

Combined Teacher-Paraprofessional Training Day

CESA 6

STUDENT SERVICES LEADERSHIP
& LEARNING CENTER

OCTOBER 22, 2021 | 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Presenter: Junko Jacobs, Student Services Leadership & Learning Center Director

An opportunity to get a jump start on the school year!

DESCRIPTION

Despite being one of the most critical elements of success of students with disabilities, too often special education teachers and paraprofessionals do not have the time to develop a collaborative and productive working relationship prior to students walking through the door.

OBJECTIVES

During this workshop, you will connect with your team and learn together around the following topics:

- Deciphering the alphabet soup of special education
- Clarifying para/teacher roles and responsibilities of each
- Effective communication
- Effective scheduling to cover IEP needs
- Supporting disability-related needs, both academic and functional
- Action planning for the upcoming school year
