

New Teacher Network & Seminar Series

Three Session Series

Being a beginning teacher can be overwhelming and challenging. Join us for this interactive seminar series that connects you to other initial educators to network with while providing you with easy to implement strategies and ideas to help alleviate the stress of being an initial educator.

Learn tactics to successfully guide you through your beginning years of teaching!

Each workshop date will include time for sharing, networking, coaching, and answering questions you may have.

Registration Fee: $25 for Complete Series
