

Facilitating Self Advocacy

Audience:

All teachers, staff, and/or administrators practicing in schools that serve students with disabilities

When:

November 2nd, 9 AM-3 PM

Where:

CESA #4
923 East Garland Street
West Salem, WI 54669

Cost:

$120 per participant for flagship schools and $175 per participant for non-flagship schools.

Your fees include online access to curriculum. You will also receive a hardcopy and online access to the Becoming a Self Advocate student curriculum.

Participants in this course will:

1. Conceptualize curriculum format
2. Characterize the key elements of the curriculum and their purpose
3. Define the importance of becoming a self advocate
4. Facilitate the awareness of internal and external factors affecting for students with disabilities when making career decisions
5. Comprehend federal and state laws pertaining to individuals with disabilities
6. Facilitate the awareness of factors that may influence postsecondary options for students with disabilities
7. Facilitate the research of employment related resources
8. Identify accommodation and disclosure processes
9. Research self advocacy agencies and support groups

To register,

go to www.CESA4.k12.wi.us

Or for more information, contact
Tracy Hogden, Dir. of Assistive Technology

CESA #4

923 East Garland Street

West Salem, WI 54669

thogden@cesa4.k12.wi.us

608.786.4850 or 800.514.3075

Education Outreach and Partnerships

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON