Supporting LGBTQ+ and Marginalized Populations

Facilitated by: Mary Gerbig and Dr. Marci Waldron-Kuhn

Date	July 29, 2021
Time:	8:30 am - 12:00 pm
Place:	CESA 7 - Meeting Room C (please enter through the glass door on the west side of the building) (hybrid-participants may attend in person or virtually)
Intended Audience:	Superintendent/District Administrator, Principals/Administration, Classroom Teachers, Special Education Teachers, Paraprofessionals, School Counselors, School Social Workers, Athletic Directors
What you will learn:	Mary Gerbig serves as counsel to numerous school districts throughout Wisconsin on general school law, special education, and labor and employment matters. She has extensive experience with Wisconsin school districts and the correlating regulatory agencies. She has represented school districts in numerous student special education and discrimination hearings and mediations under the Individuals with Disabilities Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Office for Civil Rights (OCR). Mary will start our morning by hosting and discussing pupil non-discrimination policies and practices, development of Title IX and other relevant legislation that is currently being developed and passed, due process, as well as hold a Q &amp; A session.   Dr. Marci Waldron-Kuhn will lead participants through LGBTQ+ awareness and ally training. The workshop will cover myths, perceptions, and microaggressions. Participants will explore how their own beliefs and experience impacts their practice and how awareness can lead to authentic support for students, families, colleagues and community members.
