

Wisconsin Revised Standards for English Language Arts

Year 1 Rollout Repeated: 2021-2022 Understanding

The 2020 Wisconsin Standards for English Language Arts build on the strengths of the 2010 state standards and focus on improving equity to advance learning for all students by providing every learner access to grade-level text, aiding Wisconsin students in being flexible writers, and supporting students in understanding how to vary their use of language based on audience, task, and purpose.

This three-part series (events can be stand-alone or completed as a progression of learning) will focus on:

- Understanding the organization of the Standards, with a priority emphasis on educational equity
- Developing an understanding of the significant but subtle changes within each strand: reading foundational skills, reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language
- Beginning to use a process for reviewing your current curricula in alignment to the new standards

Audience: K-12 Teachers, Teacher teams, Curriculum teams, Instructional Leaders, Coaches, and Reading Specialists (we recommend attending all events as a district or within a school team).

LAST CHANCE

We need to have at least 8-10 people registered in order to run this series.

Don't miss your chance to learn about the new ELA Standards and how your curriculum will be impacted.

Part I: ELA Standards Overview & Unpacking

Grounded in an equity lens, we will review the revised organization of the standards to provide an overview of the introduction, appendices, and major organizing features of the 2020 standards, including strands, overarching statements, clusters, anchor standards, and grade-level standards. This two-part session will also provide time to unpack the standards within each of the five strands.

Part II: Applying Standards to Your ELA Curriculum

Prerequisite: You must have attended the DPI Webinars or CESA 9's Part I

In Part II, we will introduce you to a process for reviewing your current curricula and its alignment to the new standards. To accomplish this work, we will engage in reflection and examination of model instructional resources to eliminate potential barriers that impact our goal of educational equity. Apply revision process/revision priorities.

Part III: Applying Standards to Curriculum - Coaching Support

Review your revision findings within your instructional materials in alignment to new shifts and standards with support from the CESA 9 team. Join us for a large group discussion & reflection on the curriculum revision findings. This will be an opportunity to network and collaboratively plan with other districts.
