

2011-2012 SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST NETWORK

December 9, 2011* · January 26, 2012 · February 27, 2012 · May 17, 2012

Registration: 8:00-8:30AM Meeting: 8:30AM-12:00PM

An exciting mix of speakers and topics has been selected for the School Psychologist Network meetings. As this is a new network, participants will be actively involved in determining how much time is needed to make contacts and exchange ideas with one another in addition to selecting future presentation topics. Network meetings will include relevant updates from CESA 6, including information about the Wisconsin RTI Center and CESA 6 RTI services as well as the Teacher and Leader Effectiveness Project, which will include an educational specialist evaluation system.

December 9 - DPI Update *(All Day Event: Registration 8-8:30 AM – Meeting: 8:30AM -3:30PM)

Dr. Bush will provide information specific to school psychologists regarding RTI and SLD. This presentation will build school psychologists' capacity to fill the role of "data analyst" in the RTI process and to support district and building leaders in effecting school change.

Presenter: Kathryn Bush, Ph.D., School Psychology Program Consultant, WDPI Location: Holiday Inn, Fond du Lac

January 26 and February 27 - Evidence-based Practices in Reading Instruction and Intervention (2 part series)

In the first session, Dr. O'Connor will provide an overview of the latest reading research and considerations for reading program evaluation. The second session will provide school psychologists with the skills to critically analyze current and future reading interventions to determine whether or not they are evidence-based. This session will include specific interventions that currently have an evidence base.

Presenter: Dr. O'Connor, Consultant and Instructional Data Coach, Midwest Instructional Leadership Council and frequent lecturer in the School Psychology Program at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Location: January 26, CESA 6; February 27, Holiday Inn, Fond du Lac

May 17 - Characteristics of Mental Health Disorders in Children and Adolescents

Dr. Arnold will provide a comprehensive review of how various mental health disorders are manifested in children and adolescents as well as steps that schools can take to support students with these needs. A binder of resources for school professionals will be included.

Presenter: Sarah Arnold, PsyD, Doll and Associates, a Service of Agnesian Healthcare, Fond du Lac and Behavioral Health Consultant for the EC and 4K Programs, Fond du Lac School District Location: CESA 6
