

CESA 8 CIA Department Presents:

2021-2022

NEW Teacher Support Seminars

PI 34 requires that districts provide ongoing orientation to beginning teachers. To assist districts with meeting this requirement, CESA 8 is proud to host this 4-part series.

The content and sequence of the sessions will focus on how to plan and navigate the 2021-22 school year as a new teacher and corresponds with milestone events within the school year and related professional practice components and standards.

This series will also include optional virtual check-ins and support to participants in between seminars.

Cost for the 4-part series: $100 for CIA Member School Districts

Registration: myquickreg.com

https://login.myquickreg.com/register/agency/event/event\_update.cfm?eventid=30067

1

Developing Communication Practices & Relationships that Engage

September 29, 2021 - 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on strategies to develop relationships with students, families and colleagues and connect to the “whys” that create an effective classroom.

Building and Reflecting on Instructional Practices

November 3, 2021 - 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on strategies to implement effective instructional strategies and explore methods of providing high value feedback.

2

Implementing Strategic Assessment Practices

January 12, 2022 - 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on strategies to access and the use of student assessment data to inform instruction.

3

Reflecting on Educator Practices

March 2, 2022 - 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on studying your own experiences to improve the way you work and demonstrate growth.

CESA 8

Curriculum Instruction
Assessment Department